

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

IAN SIMMERS,

Plaintiff,

v.

KING COUNTY, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:21-cv-00100-TL-JRC

ORDER RENOTING MOTION TO COMPEL AND AMENDING
SCHEDULING ORDER

This matter is before the Court on referral from the District Court and on a stipulated motion filed by the parties who have appeared in this matter. See Dkt. 80.

First, plaintiff seeks additional time to respond to a pending motion to compel, since he is relying on assistance from a legal clinic. See Dkt. 80, at 1. The Court finds good cause and grants his request.

Second, the parties also request that deadlines in the Court's scheduling order be extended by approximately 60 days. They make this request so that defense experts may review "information and records that are the subject of the motion to compel" and to accommodate plaintiff's counsel's schedule. See Dkt. 80, at 2. The Court also finds good cause to grant this request.

Therefore, the motion to compel (Dkt. 77) shall be renoted for consideration on April 15, 2022, and the scheduling order in this matter is amended as follows:

Event	Previous Deadline	New Deadline
Plaintiff's expert disclosures	March 1, 2022	May 2, 2022
Defendants' expert disclosures	April 1, 2022	June 1, 2022
Rebuttal expert disclosures	April 15, 2022	June 15, 2022
Discovery completed by	May 27, 2022	July 27, 2022
Dispositive motions filed by	June 24, 2022	August 26, 2022

Except as amended herein and previously, the parties shall comply with the Court's scheduling order. See Dkts. 46, 70.

Dated this 29th day of March, 2022.

J. Richard Creatura
Chief United States Magistrate Judge
